Casale Buccellato

Casale Buccellato is easily accessible and its large gate is located along the road of a residential area a few kilometers from Castellammare del Golfo, between Trapani and Palermo on western Sicily. The common areas on the ground floor offer comfortable spaces to relax in the traditional living room, and the dining room is directly connected to the kitchen with a typical Sicilian flavor, entirely tiled with ancient tiles.

You can access the outside from various points of the house, where you can have lunch under a large pergola and access the large, well-equipped infinity pool.
